Washington's Favorite Store.

TOMORROW WE BREAK ALL

HESE great reductions are not only calculated to surpass any sale of their kind ever launched, but will put mountains of good, seasonable merchandise on a par with jobbers' prices. That means a saving to you, and must carry the conviction that this store will be the bargain Mecca tomorrow for all frugal shoppers. Careful buying has made it possible for us to offer you a host of seasonable values at prices that are very much below present market quotations. Every department has one or more special items which is deserving of your careful attention; and comparison, from a quality and price standpoint, will prove the economy of buying here. The earlier you get here tomorrow the greater the varieties you will find to select from in all lines.

Albatross and Silk Waists.

The successful kind that sell more largely each year. Our Silk Waists are neither copies nor adaptations. They are original creations by our own New York manufacturers. Weddings to Be the Chief Attractions of the Coming Week.

Otherwise, the Outlook Promises Nothing More Exhibarating Than Luncheons, Dinners, and Tens-Whereabouts of Society People.

The social interest of the coming week will centre chiefly in weddings, of which there are to be quite a number, with Wednesday, as usual, figuring as the "best day of all." Throughout the next six days there are to be luncheons and dinners to keep life from being prosy for a considerable number of people, the week closing on Saturday with a large recep-tion in honor of Mrs. Fairbanks at the Washington Club. All these happenings put together are not likely to create what one could conscientionaly call a festive condition of affairs, but at least it will be an improvement on the sluggishness of the week just closed. True, there were weddings, a half dozen luncheons, dinners every night, a couple of dances, and two small teas, but they failed to save the social situation.

The announcement of the Patten-Corbin engagement, and later that of Miss Vivian Sartoris to Mr. Balfour of London, served for pleasant discussion, though neither were surprises of the thunderbolt variety, as far as their friends were con-

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Riley to Lieut. Henry K. Benham, U. S. N., will take place at noon Tuesday at St. Thomas Church, and at the same hour Miss Lucy M. Moore and Mr. Charles Wilkes, of Salt Lake City, will be mar-ried at St. John's. In the evening at the Sacred Heart Church, Mount Pleasant, Miss May Imogene Boucher and Mr. Jo-seph Hall Pilling will be married and later hold a reception at the Boucher resi-dence on Columbia Road.

Mrs. G. A. Shellenberger, will also be married Wednesday at St. John's Church, issued for the ceremony.

Miss Alice Hay and Miss Ruth Hanna, who are in Philadeiphia, were given a luncheon by Miss Eleanor Eurroughs Morris at her home, Tyn-y-Coed, Ardmore, on Friday afternoun. Miss Hiddegards Mc-Kenna, who is also visiting friends in Philadelphia, is being entertained continuously at pretty luncheons and dances, An especially attractive affair in her honor was the eard party given the latter. honor was the card party given the latter part of the week by Miss Isabella Fitzger-ald Morton.

possession of their new residence, 1132 Connecticut Avenue.

Mrs. John C. Fremont and her daughters have gone to Annapolis to visit Mr. John C. Fremont, Jr., who will graduate from the Naval Academy in June. After the commencement Mrs. Fremont and her daughters expect to sail for Cavite in the Philippines to join Commander Fremont.

he result was a substantial success. A bevy of daintify gowned girls acted as ushers, while another attractive group in the hall presided over the candy table, upon which were products of their skill, acquired in the association cooking school. The programme was varied and interesting. Miss Kutharine Pelton, of New York, sang twice, delignting the sudience with her rich merkee-soprane voice and artistic interpretation of songs, both grave and gay. Miss Virginia Bestor gave plane selections. The comical situations in "A Pair of Lamstics" were entered into with great spirit by Miss Wright and Mr. Aspinwail. Missess Stephenson and Barrington, in "A Pair Encounter," called forth well-merited applains. The bright music contributed by Miss Buckingham and a mandolin and guitar club was another pleasant feature.

it their home in Brookline, Mass., after winter of travel in Mexico and other oints in the Far West.

The First Secretary of the Russian Emssy and Mme. de Wollant gave a dinner Friday evening. Their guests were e Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Hill, Captain and Mme. Vignal, of the French Embassy; Lieutenant Commander and Mmc. Rehear Paschwitz, of the Ger-man Embasey; Baron and Baroness Fer-sen, of the Russian Embassy, Miss Tisdel, Mr. Wauters, Counselor of the Belgian Legation, and Mr. Geofroy, Attache of the French Embassy.

Striving to Give You Better Values!

THE REASON we are constantly gaining new trade and doing such a rapidly increasing business is plain. IT IS BECAUSE OF PRICES. It is because we do not say "How much can be constantly for the constant of the OF PRICES. It is because we do not say "How much can we get?" but rather, "For how little can we sell?" But with all our striving to constantly give better values for your money we do not keep poor or unreliable qualities. This news of to-morrow's bargains illustrates the real advantages of buying here.
